

Devonport Chiropractic Needs A Chiropractor !

Congratulations, you are about to graduate from University as a Doctor of chiropractic, you have all this information and knowledge and you are just dying to get out there and make it happen. You want to adjust people and make them better. You have bust your chops for the last 5 years and now the only problem is, you don't have a placement.

Do you want to work with a dynamic, happy, fun chiropractic team. Do you want CA's who are dedicated to improving the health of their community through chiropractic. Do you want a principal who will guide, coach and assist you become the chiropractor that you want to be. Do you want to be busy. Do you want to adjust a lot of people and make a difference. Do you want your own office with two adjusting rooms, do you want to work in an office where the procedures and systems work. Do you want to have fun and do what you love.

Then maybe we have a deal for you.

Devonport Chiropractic is looking for a chiropractor to join its chiropractic team. We are a busy chiropractic office situated in Devonport, a city on the North Western Tasmanian coast. We are an hour from Melbourne by air, 100 km's from Launceston and 80 km's from Cradle Mountain.

Hi my name is Dirk Jacobsz, I am the chiropractor at Devonport Chiropractic and we need someone to come and work with us.
